Civil Action NO. 1:17-cv-00849

DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DISMISS, FOR FEES AND SANCTIONS PURSUANT TO THE TEXAS CITIZEN'S PARTICIPATION ACT

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

COMES NOW, Roger Beasley Imports, Inc. (Defendant), and files this, its Motion to Dismiss, for Fees and Sanctions Pursuant to the Texas Citizen's Participation Act (TCPA) as codified in Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code Sec. 27.001 et seq., and would show the honorable Court the following:

I.

1. Plaintiff, a former employee of Defendant, has sued Defendant based on the following causes of action:

1. Violation of 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-2(a)(1) claiming that Defendant discharged or discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of Plaintiff's sex.
2. Breach of contract based on Defendant's allegedly failing to honor an agreement as to the terms of Plaintiff's employment relating to monthly salary and commissions.
3. Invasion of privacy/public disclosure of private facts based on Defendant and its employees publicizing information about Plaintiff's private life, that is, disclosing that Plaintiff is transgender.

4. Invasion of privacy – intrusion on seclusion based on Defendant, and its employees intentionally intruding on Plaintiff's solitude, seclusion and on private affairs by disclosing Plaintiff's status as a transgender man and the harassing actions taken against Plaintiff because he is transgender.

2. This motion is directed to Count # 3 and Count # 4 of Plaintiff's Original Petition, which contain the invasion of privacy/public disclosure of private facts and invasion of privacy/intrusion on seclusion causes of action.

II.

3. As is shown by Plaintiff's responses to requests for admissions, which are attached hereto as Exhibit A, Plaintiff's alleged status as a transgendered is a matter of public concern or Plaintiff has made his status as an alleged transgender a matter of public concern based on communications with the Austin print and television media regarding the facts which form the basis of this lawsuit, and by Plaintiff publishing and posting, or causing to be published or posted, on various forms of social media a detailed article discussing the facts which form the basis of this lawsuit, including Plaintiff's transgender status (attached to Exhibit B, Defendant's request for admissions to Plaintiff).

III.

4. Defendant is entitled to dismissal of Counts # 3 and # 4 of Plaintiff's Original Petition because those allegations constitute a legal action that is based on, relates to or is in response to Defendant's exercise of the right to free speech on a matter of public concern.

5. In order to dismiss a claim under the TCPA, movant must first show by a preponderance of the evidence that the legal action is based on, relates to or is in response to the movant's exercise of the right of free speech. T.C.P.R.C. § 27.005(b). If this initial showing is made, the burden then shifts to the non-movant to establish by clear and specific evidence a prima facie case for each essential element of the claim in question. Id. Sec. 27.005(c). Dismissal of the claim is mandatory if the non-movant fails to satisfy this burden. Id. Sec. 27.005(b). In determining whether a legal action should be dismissed under this chapter, the court shall consider the pleadings and supporting and opposing affidavits stating the facts on which the liability or defense is based. Id. Sec. 27.006(a); Cuba v. Pylant, 814 F.3d 701 (5th Cir. 2016).

IV.

6. The first part of the analysis is simple and clear. The Texas Legislature defined "legal action" as "a lawsuit, cause of action, petition, complaint, cross-claim or counter-claim, or any other judicial pleading or filing, that requests legal or equitable relief." T.C.P.R.C. Sec. 27.001(6). It is undisputed that this lawsuit meets the definition of legal action.

7. Counts 3 and 4 of the lawsuit against Defendant are based on, relate to, or are made in response to Defendant's, and its employees', exercise of the right of free speech. The TCPA defines the exercise of the right of free speech as "a communication made in connection with a matter of public concern." T.C.P.R.C. Sec.

8. A “communication” includes the making or submitting of a statement or document in any form of medium, including oral, visual, written, audiovisual or electronic. Id. Sec. 27.001(1).

9. A “matter of public concern” includes a laundry list of issues, but also has been held to include non-public communications made in the context of emails sent by administrators of a plaintiff’s employer criticizing that employee’s conduct. Lippincott v. Whisenhunt, 462 S.W.3d 507 (Tex. 2015).

10. The plain language of Plaintiff’s allegations in his petition show that he claims that Defendant and its employees publicized information about Plaintiff’s transgender status to other employees (Count 3) and allegedly invaded Plaintiff’s privacy and/or intruded on his seclusion by disclosing Plaintiff’s status as a transgender (Count 4), apparently to other employees (the language of Count 4 of Plaintiff’s Original Petition is not particularly well drafted or clear on the issue of who was the recipient of the disclosure).

11. Plaintiff’s communicating with the mass media and to the public on social media regarding his transgendered status demonstrates that Plaintiff’s legal action as to Plaintiff’s Original Petition as to Counts 3 and 4 is based on, relates to or is in response to Defendant’s exercise of its rights of free speech on what is and what he apparently believes is a matter of public concern.

V.

12. The second part of the analysis is that once the movant has made its initial showing, the burden then shifts to the non-movant to establish by clear and specific evidence a prima facie case for each essential element of the claim in question.

13. The elements of the tort of invasion of privacy are (1) intentional intrusion, physically or otherwise, upon another's solitude, seclusion of private affairs or concerns which (2) would be highly offensive to a reasonable person. Valenzuela v. Aquino, 853 S.W.2d 512 (Tex. 1993); Olivares v. Rausch, Sturm, Israel Emerson & Hornik, LLC, 2013 WL 12109036 (W.D. Tex. Austin Div. 2013).

14. The Plaintiff must establish by clear and specific evidence a prima facie case for both of these elements of invasion of privacy in order to defeat movant's motion.

15. The Plaintiff has publicly disclosed and discussed his transgender status, as is shown by his responses to request for admissions. Any attempts by the Plaintiff to contend that the disclosure of his transgender status by Defendant or its employees is "highly offensive to a reasonable person" appears hypocritical or without any basis in fact.

16. And, it seems unlikely that in 2017, any "reasonable person" would consider a person's transgender status to be "highly offensive" in American culture.

VI.

17. The T.C.P.A. requires the court to award the successfully moving party its costs, attorney's fees, sanctions and other expenses. T.C.P.R.C. Sec. 27.009(a)(1) and T.C.P.R.C. Sec. 27.009(a)(2). Sullivan v. Abraham, 488 S.W.3d 294 (Tex. 2016).

18. Defendant therefore respectfully requests the opportunity to submit evidence of, and for the Court to award at the conclusion of this litigation, court costs, reasonable attorney's fees and other expenses incurred in defending against Plaintiff's claims for invasion of privacy. Schimmel v. McGregor, 438 S.W.3d 847 (Tex. App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 2014, writ denied) (issue of attorney's fees can be severed and tried separately from the TCPA dismissal).

19. In addition, Defendant respectfully requests that the Court impose sanctions in the amount it determines appropriate to deter Plaintiff from bringing similar actions.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Defendant prays that the Court dismiss Counts 3 and 4 of Plaintiff's Original Petition against Defendant pursuant to the TCPA, that Defendant be awarded all costs, fees and other expenses incurred pursuant to T.C.P.R.C. Sec. 27.009(a)(1), along with sanctions under T.C.P.R.C. Sec. 27.009(a)(2) and such other and further relief to which it may show itself justly entitled.

Transgender General Sales Manager Files Lawsuit Against Austin, Texas Car Dealership

Employee Files Lawsuit against Roger Beasley Imports for Discrimination

AUSTIN, Texas - Aug. 26, 2017 - PRLog – Bradley Rudkin served Roger Beasley Mitsubishi as it's General Sales Manager beginning on or about February 1st, 2015. Within the first 3 weeks of employment, Jim Bagan, Company Vice President approached Mr. Rudkin's desk and asked for a quick conversation. When Bradley approached, Jim Bagan stated, "I hear you are a cross-dresser," after an uncomfortable silence, Bradley responded, "Do you really want me to comment on that?" Jim abruptly said, "No, just keep it professional." Mr. Bagan then turned and walked away. These comments were unwelcome and Mr. Rudkin considered them to be an intrusion on his personal life.

On another occasion, Plaintiffs girlfriend, a transgender woman visited plaintiff for lunch at the dealership. While eating lunch in the Plaintiffs office an employee shouted out loud on the showroom floor, "Hey, You guys aren't sucking each others (Expletive) in there are you?" This event was followed by laughter and chatter by other employees in the building. The taunting was unwelcome and made Plaintiff and his girlfriend very uncomfortable. Two weeks after this event, Bradley Rudkin was abruptly terminated without notice and without cause by Richard Davis, an employee hired to take Mr Rudkin's place.

Bradley Rudkin

Beasley Mitsubishi. Suit was filed 8-1-2017 with "EEOC Right to Sue" letter within time limits as set by EEOC.

Full text of this complaint, as filed with the District Court in the State Of Texas is attached.
